Dear Mr Minocha,

I wanted to put on record my mothers and the family's appreciation of the tremendous amount of hard work and diligence done in constructing [REDACTED]. This would not have been possible without your astute leadership qualities.

I would also like to state the amount of hard work put in by some key members of your team most notably Rajesh, Aditi and Gargi. In this note I will only talk about Rajesh since I am copying him on this mail.

Rajesh from the very beginning has been exemplary in handling this complex and large project. He exhibited tremendous amount of patience when we were finalising the plans for the house and took a lot of effort and pain in guiding me through the various options and explaining the pros and cons of each.

I think we went through possibly, at least 20 iterations. Hats off to him for putting up with us. Even when he went through a personal tragedy in his family he was still available on the phone for any query which I had.

All along he exhibited complete professionalism and transparency which frankly is very rare in the Corporate world. Rajesh is a tremendous asset to your organisation .

Thank you Rajesh and of course thank you Mr Minocha.

Warm Regards
